Upon the call for communications, the following overture was received from Rev. H. C DuBose, of the China Mission, which was referred to the Committee on the Theological Seminary:

The undersigned respectfully overtures the Reverend the Synod of South Carolina, the oldest and most prominent of the associated Synods controlling the Theological Seminary at Columbia, to take the initiative steps to enlarge the chair of Pastoral Theology, so that it may include instruction in "The English Scriptures." This is not intended to diminish aught from the study of the Bible in the original languages, but to have two chairs instead of one for the 66 Books. The recent movement of giving a full course of Biblical instruction in our Presbyterian Colleges, requires that the Seminary standard be made higher. The Northern General Assembly has recommended that there be added to each of its great Theological Schools a chair of the English Bible. Union Seminary, at Hampden Sydney, has now an endowment of $34 000 for the Pastoral and English Biblical Chair. As Columbia has the finest winter climate of all the Seminaries in the world, its advantages for the study of God's Word should also be unsurpassed.

Most sincerely
HAMPDEN C. DuBOSE.

China Mission, July 22, 1889.

The Synod received also from the Synod of Georgia the Revised Constitution of the Seminary as amended and adopted by that Synod. This too was referred to the Committee on the Theological Seminary.

A Memorial from Clinton College to Synod was read, and on motion of Rev. Geo. Summey, was referred to a special committee. The Moderator appointed Rev. Geo. Summey, G. A. Blackburn and W. T. Matthews, and Elders W. W. Simpson and A. M. Kennedy, to be this Committee.

Rev. H. C. DuBose, of the China Mission, presented to Synod a copy of his book, "The Street Chapel Pulpit."

The Faculty of Wofford College, of this city, extended to members of Synod an invitation to visit the College at their convenience and pleasure, which, on motion of Rev. Prof. Flinn, was received with thanks.

Rev. Drs. E. M Richardson, Synod of Memphis, and J. B. Shearer, Synod of North Carolina, were invited and welcomed to seats as corresponding members.

The hearing of memorials of deceased brethren was referred to the Committee on Devotional Exercises to recommend a suitable time.

The hour of 11 a. m. to-day, was set for hearing Rev. Dr. Hazen, Secretary of Publication.

Synod then heard the Narratives from the Presbyteries, and the following

The hearing of the Reports from the Presbyteries on Home Missions was postponed to come up in connection with the conference on Evangelistic work, etc., to-day at 12.

On motion, it was—

Resolved, to hear the Rev. Dr. Shearer, the bearer of a special communication from the Synod of North Carolina, after the address of Dr. Hazen, to-day.

On motion, it was also—

Resolved, to hear the Rev. Dr. Richardson, Secretary of Education, to-day, at the conclusion of the conference.

Rev. John G. Law, Secretary, then presented the Report of the Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary, which was heard, and referred to the Committee on the Theological Seminary. The report is as follows:

The Board of directors of the Theological Seminary of the Synod of South Carolina and Georgia, respectfully submit their annual report to the Associated Synods.

The doors of the Seminary were re-opened after the summer vacation on the 16th day of September, with our four professors at their posts of duty. Twenty-two students have matriculated for the session, with a reasonable expectation of others yet to come. This is an increase of four over the number reported at the same time last year, and of two over the number matriculated during the entire term. The students are distributed in classes as follows: Senior, 13; Middle, 4; Junior, 5. The exercises of the Seminary have been conducted with commendable diligence, fidelity and punctuality on the part of professors and students, and were happily terminated on the 9th of May. The students of the past session were classified as follows: Senior, 2: Middle, 12; Junior, 3; Special, 3. The election of the Rev. W. M. McPheeters, D. D., to the chair of Biblical Literature and Exegesis; and of the Rev. F. R. Beattie, Ph. D., D. D., to the Perkins chair of Natural Science in connection with Revelation and Christian Apologetics, has been confirmed by a majority of the controlling Synods. The inauguration of these esteemed brethren has, at their request, been postponed until the close of the present term. The professors have given entire satisfaction, and are fully equal to all the requirements of their important chairs. With these valuable accessions to our Faculty, we are prepared to offer superior advantages to students in preparation for the work of the gospel ministry, and feel encouraged and hopeful for the future.

The Faculty is now constituted as follows:

J. D. Tadlock, D. D., Professor of Church Government and History.

J. L. Girardeau, D. D., LL. D., Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology.

F. R. Beattie, Ph. D., D. D., Perkins Professor of Natural Science in connection with Revelation and Christian Apologetics.

W. M. McPheeters, D. D., Professor of Biblical Literature and Scripture Exegesis.

Full instruction has been given in all the departments, the chair of Pastoral Theology and Sacred Rhetoric being still vaant, its duties are for the present distributed between the professors of Theology and Church History.

It is the intention of the Board, so soon as the way seems clear, to place a financial agent in the field for the purpose of completing the endowment of the Seminary.

An increase of funds for the support of students is one of our pressing wants at present. We have reason to believe that the number of students would be considerably increased if they could be assured of an appropriation to help them on their way through the Seminary year. To meet this pressing want, the Faculty have, with the endorsement of the Board, issued a circular letter to the churches of the controlling Synods. With these urgent wants supplied, our Seminary, we are convinced, with the blessing of our covenant God, will attain to that measure of prosperity and usefulness so much to be desired.

We have no material changes to report in the financial condition of the Seminary. The finances, under the management of our judicious investing committee, remain in a sound and healthy condition. The amount of invested funds is about $235,000, yielding an annual income of about $13,000. Some recent changes of investments, under the advice of the investing committee, will increase our revenue, and give us four good houses for the use of professors.

Valuable additions have been made to the library during the year by the purchase of 131 volumes, and the donation of 140 volumes. The library now consists of about 19,000 volumes, and its value will be considerably enhanced by the work of one of the students, who has been employed to re-arrange the catalogue, and classify the books for more convenient reference.

The Board have requested the Faculty to make arrangements for public closing exercises at the end of the Seminary year, such exercises to consist of a Baccalaureate sermon by a minister chosen for the purpose by the Faculty; an address to the Society of Inquiry by a speaker chosen by the Society; an address to the Alumni by a speaker chosen by the Alumni. They have also advised the Faculty to adopt the system of written examinations.

The students have enjoyed the benefit of a course of instructions in elocution by Prof. Rayhill. We gratefully acknowledge the good hand of our God in preserving the lives of our professors and students, and keeping them in good health during the entire term, and humbly invoke a continuance of his providential care over our beloved Seminary.

JOHN G. LAW, Secretary. JAMES STACY, President.

Rev. T. H. Law presented the following—

To assessment Charleston Presbytery paid	35 00

To assessment Harmony Presbytery paid	45 00
To assessment South Corolina Presbytery paid	40 00

CR.

By balance due Treasurer last report,		$ 8 30
By printing 2,000 copies Minutes,		78 00
By distributing Minutes,		25 00
By paid for Statistical Tables for 1889,		12 00
By salary of Stated Clerk,		100 00
	$223 30	$223 30

As the Synod last year ordered the publication annually with our Minutes of the reports of the Presbyteries to the General Assembly, I have already procured from the printers of the Assembly's Minutes, the requisite number of copies of the statistical tables to be inserted in our Minutes of this meeting, thereby saving largely in the expense of this appendix.

Respectfully submitted,

THOS. H. LAW,
Treasurer.

It was referred to the Committee on Finance.

The following Report of the Society for the Relief of Indigent and Superannuated Ministers, etc., was presented and received as information, the same officers being re-elected to serve for the next year:

To the Synod of South Carolina.

The Treasurer of the "Society for the Relief of Indigent and Superannuated Ministers of the Presbyterian Church and their Families," would respectfully report

That the assets of the said Society which are unquestionably good will, on the 1st November, prox., amount to $3526.76, an increase since the last report made to the Synod of S. C., at Greenwood, Oct. 12, 1888, of $243.61.

As no donations or subscriptions have been received, this increase is accounted for solely by interest. All the interest that is due has been collected except a few dollars, and this the treasurer expects to collect in a few months.

The assets are as follows:

Good notes,.....	$2256 27
State Stock, (bonds,).....	956 74
Cash on hand,.....	503 75
	$3526 76

The apparently large amount of cash on hand is accounted for by reason of the fact that a considerable amount of interest has been received within the last few days, and the the treasurer has not had a satisfactory opportunity of investing it.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

L. W. WHITE,
Treasurer.

Rev. Dr. Cozby, Chairman of the Synod's Executive Committee on Colportage, presented the following report, which was referred to the Committee on Publication.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF COLPORTAGE.

The Moderator of Synod, acting under its authority, after the adjournment of the body, appointed the following to be the committee to inaugurate and prosecute the work of colportage in the bounds of Synod: Ministers J. S. Cozby, D. E. Jordan, W. P. Jacobs. Elders: W. J. Duffie, John McSween.

This Committee met in Columbia, January 15th, 1889, and was duly organized—Rev. J. S. Cozby Chairman, and Rev. W. P. Jacobs Secretary.

From the applicants for the position of Colporteur, the Committee made choice of one with two alternates, hoping thereby to secure one for the work, and save the Committee the time and expense which another meeting would cause.

These several appointees, after long waiting of the Committee for their answers, declined the work, and the Chairman, by authority of the Committee, corresponded with many others with reference to their undertaking the work, but failed to secure one until the latter part of May, when a Theological student offered himself and was appointed for the period of his vacation. He engaged in the work for only one month with encouraging success, when he was obliged to discontinue it on account of his health. The Chairman of the Committee being unwilling that the work should be stopped, with the concurrence of one member of the Committe, Rev. W. P. Jacobs, appointed Mr. R. S. Phinney as Colporteur, his appointment to continue until this meeting of Synod, when, if results warranted the further prosecution of this work, permanent arrangement could be made.

The Committee would say to Synod, that as the experiment of this work has been made during the most unfavorable period of the year for the cash sale of books, it is our judgment that the question of a successful prosecution of this work in our bounds has not been decided by the results of the past year.

J. S. COZBY.
Chairman.

F. L. ANDERSON,

The report was adopted.

Rev. J. W. Flinn, of the Committee on the Minutes of the Assembly, presented a report in behalf of a majority of the Committee as follows:

Synod's Committee on the Minutes of the General Assembly respectfully submits the following report:

This Committee finds on page 589 of the Assembly's Minutes that the Assembly "disapproved the action of the Synod of South Carolina, together with the reasons sssigned therefor," in condemning Charleston Presbytery's order "forbidding the public contending against the decision of the Assembly" in the Woodrow case.

But inasmuch as Charleston Presbytery has declared in its records that it has already obeyed Sydod's order to "review and correct its proceeding which Synod has condemned," we deem it unnecessary to do more than to reaffirm the doctrine that every minister, ruling elder, deacon and private member has the constitutional right to contend publicly, through the press or otherwise, against the decisions of all our courts from the lowest to the highest.

J. WILLIAM FLINN, Chairman,
A. P. CAMPBELL,
J. S. COSZBY,

Rev J. M. Rose presented a report of the minority of the Committee, as follows:

Resolved, That the Synod expresses its acquiescence in the decision of the General Assembly, and its entire satisfaction with its judgment inasmuch as its action was not intended to limit either the liberty of private judgment or the constitutional right of proper discussion.

The Committee on the Theological Seminary presented majority and minority reports, as follows:

The Committee on the Theological Seminary report:

1. That, according to the statements of the Board of Directors presented at this meeting, the work of this institution went on during the past year, and the regular exercises of this session, which opened Sept. 16, 1889, are now progressing with four professors and twenty two students. That department is supplied by other professors.

2. We find nothing in the minutes, or report, of the Board which requires special action on the part of Synod, but we feel constrained to express the wish that a brighter and happier day may soon come for this beloved Seminary.

3. The Synod of Georgia having officially notified us of the adoption of the Revised Constitution (with amendments) by that body, we recommend that this be received as information, and that a special committee be appointed to report on this subject at our next meesing. Also, that the overture of the Rev. H. C. DuBose in regard to English Bible study in the Seminary be referred to the Board of Direetors for their consideration and suggestions.

Resolved, That the Minutes be received simply as information on the ground that the highest court of the church having spoken, the lower courts should acquiesce. This course is recommended not only as in accordance with law, but as conducive to the peace and harmony of the church.

The Synod then went into conference on Christian Beneficence, Rev. Geo. L. Cook in the chair. After earnest and impressive addresses by Rev. Messrs. J. S. White and G. A. Blackburn—

Oct. 28, 1889.

Rev. J. E. Dunlop reported for the Committee on Publication, which report was adopted as follows :

The Committee on Publication would beg leave to report that no papers have come into their hands, except the report of the Committee on Colportage, and the report of the Committee on Publication of the last Synod, which together with the speech, before this Synod; of Dr. Hazen, constitute the only information available upon which to base their report. From Dr. Hazen the Synod has heard, with pleasure, that the financial condition of the Committee of Publication is excellent; and that it is now able to enter upon its work under more favorable auspices than at any previous period in its history and deserves the earnest support of the church at large.

From the report of the Committee of Colportage we learn that the Committee labored under difficulties which have prevented them from making a fair test of the plan recommended by the Assembly. They have, however, a Synodical colporteur, Mr. R. S. Phinney, who, under unfavorable circumstances, has accomplished all that could have been expected of him. Your Committee, therefore, recommend

1st. That the Synod has heard with pleasure the very exeellent address of Dr. J. K. Hazen, the Secretary of the Assembly's Executive Committee of Publication.

2nd. That the same Committee of Colportage be re-elected, and their diligence in the work so far commended.

3rd. That they continue the work of Colportage as begun, and push it with energy.

Respectfully submitted by the committee.

J. E. Dunlop, Chairman.

Rev. W. G. Neville, of the Committee on Home Missions, presented a report, which was adopted and is as follows :

The Committee on Home Missions would respectfully report that written reports from all five of the Presbyteries have come into our hands.

These reports are very cheering indeed. All of the Presbyteries are actively and earnestly engaged in the aggressive work of the Church in the home field.

In the Sustentation Department of Home Missions, all the Presbyteries seem to be doing a good work.

The reports from the Presbyteries on Evangelistic work are still more encouraging.

Bethel Presbytery has had two evangelists in the field during the past year for half of their time and another for one fourth of his time Two promising churches have been organized through the instrumentality of these brethren and a commission has been appointed to organize a third church.

Charleston Presbytery has two Evangelists, who are engaged for all of their time in evangelistic work.

Enoree Presbytery has one Evangelist in the field for all of his time, through whose instrumentality three churches have been organized during the last year.

Harmony Presbytery has one Evangelist in the field for all his time. Three new churches have been organized through his labors and commissions have been appointed to organize two other churches.

South Carolina Presbytery has had two local Evangelists in the field during the last year. This Presbytery has also elected a general Evangelist and arrangements have been made for him to enter upon his work at an early day.

In view of these encouraging facts, we feel called upon, as a Synod

1, To render devout thanks to tho Great Head of the Church, by whose grace and strength this grand work has been accomplished.

2, To urge the Presbyteries to push forward this glorious work with still greater zeal and activity.

W. G. NEVILLE,
Chairman Committee.

Rev. Dr. Brackett, of the Judicial Committee, reported that no business had come into its hands and asked to be discharged. Granted.

Rev. Dr. Lindsay, of the Committee, presented and Synod adopted the following

NARRATIVE.

It is proper that this Synod should send to the churches under its care an account of the state of religion in its bounds. The narratives presented to us from the several Presbyteries furnish the data from which this account is compiled. In these narratives we find much that is favorable and encouraging and at the same time some thiugs to remind us that we "have not yet attained."

In nearly all of our churches the ordinances of God's house have been regularly dispensed either by pastors or stated supplies. There are few vacant churches and few communities in our bounds totally destitute of religious privileges, though there are whole counties yet in which there is no Presbyterian church.

There is a manifest decrease of intemperance and Sabbath desecration and less complaint of what is known as questionable amusements. The worldliness that so directly antagonises the Christian life, we fondly hope, has not the strong hold on our people as in former times. There are symptoms of more zeal and consecration in promoting the Lord's cause, yet there are many who need to be aroused to a fuller discharge of the obligations they owe to the Master who gave himself to them.

Family Worship, which has always been recognized as as a badge of healthful Presbyterianism, is not practised generally as it should be. This is complained of in most of the narratives this year, and has been a standing complaint for many past years. This is not an evidence of progress in the right direction. Parents must lead their households to the throne of grace if they would have the angels of God to encamp about them, and the blessings of heaven to attend them.

The grace of giving is practised hy some of our people, and the collections in many churches reach fully the assessments placed upon them in the behalf of the Assembly's enterprises. It is to be regretted that this cannot be said of all the churches. The assessments are usually fair and judicious, and should be fully met. It is to be feared that few even aim at a right standard in the matter of giving. They do not give as God hath prospered them. They do not honor the Lord with their substance They have never attained to the thought that God can be worshipped by property. If the obligations to systematic beneficence imposed in the New Testament were generally felt by our people, all the enterprises of the Church could be enlarged and richer blessings, both temporal and spiritual, would be brought to themselves.

In one of the Presbyteries mention is made of efficient labor in vacant churches by ruling elders, who not only hold up the hands of ministers, but who also, by their instructions and prayers, help to proclaim the truth and gather into the Church "of such as shall be saved." As a Church we have not utilized the eldership for evangelical labors as might have been done, and it is well that attention should now de directed to this important matter.

Some of the Presbyteries do something towards instructing the colored people. The needs of these people are great and pressing, and they are with us in large numbers and there is a feeling throughout the Church that more should be done than has been in bringing the truths and the hopes of the gospel to them.

There have been some precious seasons of revival in many of our churches. The Spirit of God has been manifestly at work giving efficiency to the ordinances in the conversion of sinners and the strengthening and comforting of God's people.

It is surely a matter of joyous recognition that more than one thousand members have been added to our church within the past year.

A careful review of the condition of the Presbyterian Church in our State brings to us the voice of the Master, tenderly and authoritatively calling us to larger gifts, to more earnest prayers, and more faithful and hopeful efforts in behalf of our Presbyterianism.

J. O. LINDSAY;
Chairman.

Rev. D. A. Todd, of the Committee on the Memorial of Rev. E. O. Frierson, asked leave to report at the next meeting, which was allowed.

Rev. Dr. Jordan moved that the report presented by him Saturday on the evangelization of the colored people, be placed on the docket, and the consideration of the subject be made the first special order after the discharge of the regular orders of the Second Day of the next meeting of Synod. The special order was then taken up and the third item of the Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures was considered. On motion, as a substitute for this recommendation of the Committee, it was resolved that this matter be referred to a special Committee, to report at the next meeting of Synod. The report as amended was then adopted as a whole.

Synod then took from the docket the report on the memorial of the college at Clinton.

The report was amended and adopted as follows :

The committee to which was referred the Memorial of the Board of Trustees of the College at Clinton, begs leave to recommend to the Synod the following action :

Resolved 1st. That this Synod has heard with pleasure and gratitude of the good work doue in the institution at Clinton and of the encouraging prospects of increasing usefulness.

2nd. The Synod takes pleasure in commending the college at Clinton to all Presbyterians, that as many as feel inclined to do so may give it their sympathy and support.

The resolution of Rev. T. H. Law was taken from the docket and adopted as follows :

Resolved, That a committee consisting of Rev. S. M. Smith, D. D., J. W. Flinn and Elder W. A. Clark be appointed to consider and report to the next Synod on its relation and duty to the cause of Bible distribution.

The following, presented by Rev. A. A. James, was also adopted :

Resolved, That fhe Synod of South Carolina expresses its profound interest in the object proposed by the American Sabbath Union, and its gratitude to God for the wide-spread determination to do something to correct the evils of Sabbath desecration.

2. That three members be appointed a permanent committee on the Sabbath.

3. That the Synod in adopting this resolution is not to be understood as committing itself to any action of the American Sabbath Union relating to the civil aspect of the subject under consideration, however much it is to be desired that Christian men as good citizens exert themselves to secure the best legislation, and the efficient enforcement of existing laws, so as to secure a better observance of the working man's rest day.

The following committee was appointed :

Rev. A. A. James, Rev. G. A. Blackburn and Elder I. N. Withers.

Rev. W. P. Jacobs offered and Synod adopted by a rising vote the following:

Resolved, That Synod desires to express its heartfelt thanks to the people of Spartanburg for their warm and generous hospitality, by which they have welcomed us into their homes; and that in parting from them we leave our prayers with God for his richest blessings to abide with them; and that the thanks of Synod be returned to rail road companies for their accommodations to the Synod.

Synod then heard and adopted by a rising vote the following memorials of deceased brethren:

WILLIAM AUGUSTUS CALDWELL.

Was born of pious parentage in Charleston, S. C., July, 1863. A child of the covenant, reared in the bosom of piety, as was expected, he early devoted himself to the service of Christ, uniting by profession of faith, with the church of his fathers, the Central of Charleston April 9, 1876. His education was conducted under the personal supervision of his father, Mr. Joseph T. Caldwell, himself a professional and experienced teacher, and he was graduated from the Charleston College, with high honor, March, 1882, when he was not yet 19 years of age.

Persuaded that he was called of God to the gospel ministry, the month following he placed himself under the care of Charleston Presbytery as a Candidate for that holy office, and the next September entered the Theological Seminary at Columbia, S. C., to prepare himself especially for that blessed work. While a student of this institution, he labored one vacation, during the Summer of 1883, at Rutherfordton, N. C., under the supervision of Mecklenburg Presbytery. Upon the completion of his Theological course, having previously been licensed by Charleston Preebytery, April 10, 1885, he took charge of the Davidson College Church, in N. C., where he labored acceptably for one year, but declined to allow his name to go before the congregation for election as pastor, being convinced that the work was too heavy for him. He was, however, unanimously called to the Pastorate of the Unionville Church, of Enoree Presbytery, in Sept. 1888, and after a careful examination by the Presbytery, which was eminently satisfactory, he was duly ordained and installed pastor of that church by a Commission of Presbytery, Jan. 9, 1887.

With a delicate constitution and a body not altogether free from disease, he pursued his labors here in the face of physical feebleness and frequent suffering, but yet most acceptably in his flock. by whom he was tenderly cherished as a loving pastor. and a faithful and instructive preacher. As a mark of thier affection and regard, this people, though a little flock, built for him and his loving wife, whom he had married but a few days before his installation, a neat and comfortable manse, in which he was permitted to spend a few weeks of his earthly life, though languishing upon a bed of illness.

In November, 1887, he was taken seriously ill, and from that time onward he lingered on the borders of the grave amid great feebleness and suffering, until God took him. Meantime he proposed to resign his charge, almost hopeless of recovery; but his devoted flock would not consent and gave him leave of absence till the Autumn. For a change of air he was removed in January to his native home, but without beneficial effect. And there, after a few weeks more of suffering, which he bore with wonderful patience and resignation, on the 29th of March, 1888, surrounded by his loved ones and sustained by divine grace, he died in the full triumph of the glorious gospel of Christ.

Thus passed away one who had been lovely in all earth's relationships,—a dutiful son, a loving brother, a true friend, a devoted husband and a faithful pastor. Brother Caldwell was of gentle and affectionate disposition, tender sensibilities, high-toned principles and pleasant manners, making him lovable and attractive in his person. He was endowed at the same time with true Christian courage and manliness of character. He had clear convictions of truth and duty, and was not afraid to express and maintain them. And withal he was industrious, conscientious and faithful. And these good traits being sanctified by grace and practice, he was well qualified to be a successful pastor, and promised to be a most useful Presbyter. While therefore we record with gratification this testimonial to his worth, we at the same time express our unfeigned and heartfelt sorrow at his early removal from us. But in mourning our loss, we rejoice in the sweet hope that he has departed to be with Christ, which is far better.

REV. R. W. MILNER.

Rev. Robert W. Milner was born in North Carolina, on the 7th of October, 1823,. At a very early age his parents moved to Georgia, in which state most of his life was spent. He was a thoughtful young man and became impressed at an early age of the duty of consecrating his life to the service of God. At the age of 19, he united with the Woodstock Presbyterian Church. In the fall of 1850, (at the age of 27) he was united in marriage to Miss Lane, a sister of Rev. Charles W. Lane, D. D., of Athens, Ga. From this union sprang ten children, three of whom have preceded him to glory, and the rest of whom are now of adult age.

About this time, Mr. Milner's attention was turned toward the ministry. He prosecuted a course of study privately in theology, having previously received his education in the sciences and languages in the Oglethorpe College.

In 1857, he was licensed to preach by Augusta Presbytery and three years afterwards, was installed Pastor of New Hope and Danielsville Churches.

For many years he labored in this field and was blessed in this work, resigning it that he might accept the position of Evangelist in the bounds of Augusta Presbytery. While in this service eleven churches were gathered and organized, and still abide as monuments to his zeal for the Master.

Desiring once more to enter a more settled pastorate he removed to Franconia, Ala., where he remained only a short while. In the fall of 1886 he removed to Clinton, S. C. Here again he was drawn into Evangelistic work for a portion of his time, two new churches being the result of his labors.

Owing to the appearance of the terrible malady that ended his days, he resigned the position of Presbyterial Evangelist, but remained in charge of Friendship, Harmony and Cane Creek Churches to the very last; even when his doom was sealed and he was on his back to rise no more, he was still advising, aiding and encouraging them.

His whole illness was one of great pain, the cancer steadily sapping his great physical strength and powers of endurance. He longed to live, and though sixty-five years of age, he was active as a boy, and had promise of a green old age. Yet, when told his fate by the physicians, no murmuring word escaped him. It was hard to face such a living death, but he was patient as a child under it. His own sympathy for those who nursed him in their trying labors, was a touching spectacle His appreciation for every act of kindness was unbounded, and often and often he exclaimed "My Master is so good to give me such friends." All through the months of his suffering, he longed for the "loving touch" of His divine Lord, and at the last his heart seemed filled with the vision of that glorius face. His testimony was continually, every day, that the blessed Jesus was enough for him.

Just before he rested from his labors he called two of his sons to his bedside, and laying his hand on each, he said, "My son, fear God; He is a God of love." He then lay in deep thought when one asked him, "What are you thinking of, father?" He answered quickly, "Thinking? Why, of my blessed Master, the precious, loving Saviour." Another asked, "Can't you tell us something of him?" He answered, "Yes ! Yes ! Yes ! He is love, all love, when you think of him, he is love ! When you touch him he is love! Blessed Jesus!" And with that word upon his lips, his voice was hushed forever.

He died on the evening of the holy Sabbath, the 25th of November, falling asleep without a struggle.

On the next day he was buried in the Cemetery of the Clinton Presbyterian Church, there to rest until the great summons.

His work is done. It was done with all his might, for he knew not how to do anyhing by halves. He has left behind an example of untiring perseverance in the work of God, and passed away leaving to those who watched his fading strength the rich assurance, that

"Jesus can make a dying bed,
As soft as downy pillows are."

ROBERT McKEMIE KIRKPATRICK

Was born of Christian parents in Butler County, Ala., Jan. 28, 1848. His father, John L. Kirkpatrick, a native of Cabarrus County N. C., was and still is an elder in Sandy Ridge Church, Lowndes County Ala. His mother, Rachel Morgan, who preceded him to the Land of Promise, was a daughter of Enoch Morgan, an Elder in Valley Creek Church, Dallas County. He was thus descended on both sides from the noble among God's people. About the age of 17 he became an object of saving grace, and, together with an older and younger brother, was received into Sandy Ridge Church under the ministry of Rev. Wm. Swift, of blessed memory. His early life was spent on the farm and in the "old field school."

During a visit to Sandy Ridge, of the Rev. R. Nall, D. D., the noted Evangelist, many were made to feel the Spirit's blessed influences. As he was taking leave of the family, he said to the mother of the deceased, (her five sons being present,) "Can't you give the Lord one for a preacher?" Months afterwards two of them, each without the other's knowledge, dedicated themselves to the Lord in the ministry of His Word, and both dated ther conviction of a call from that question of God's servant.

Great difficulties were in the way of securing the needed education, but God opened the way. After attending a High School near Fort Deposit, Brother Kirkpatrick was taken under care of East Alabama Presbytery, and in January, 1869, entered the Sophomore class at Davidson College. There he was noted for his prudence and industry conscientiously applying himself to all his college duties. He was graduated in 1871 in a class of 32.

In September of this year he entered Columbia Theological Seminary, where he remained for two years, failing health preveuting his attendance during the third year.

In the meantime he was licensed by East Alabama Presbytery, at Eufala, October 19, 1873, and labored in Lee and Chambers Counties at New Harmony, Auburn, and Lebanon Churches. In the fall of 1874, he re-entered Columbia Seminary, where he finished his course in May, 1875. He then returned to the field formerly occupied, and while there, was ordained to the full work of the ministry, by East Alabama Presbytery, November 1875. In December of the same year, the churches of Orion, Sandy Ridge, Providence and Philadelphia secured his services. At the expiration of three years he accepted a call to the pastorate of Prattville, Wetumpka, and returned to Prattville, in Febuary, 1878.

For nearly seven years he labored with great energy to meet the demands of this large and important field. Failing health compelled a reluctant severance of the ties that bound a faithful pastor to a devoted flock; and led to his acceptance of a call from Westminster Church in S. C. Presbytery. To the kind and appreciative people of this charge he devoted the remainder of his days.

His last call, that to the ministry of the exalted Savior in the Church triumphant, came August 6th, 1888. The subject of this sketch was a modest, quiet man, of an eminently prudent and conscientious spirit; gentle as a woman, he was as firm as a rock where his convictions of truth and honor were involved. As a preacher he was earnest and laborious, "instant in season and out of season." He loved his Master's work and his Master's people, and in return was beloved by them wherever he went. He was married on the 16th of November, 1876, to Miss Laura Foster, daughter of the Rev. G. R. Foster. This noble woman, who proved a true helpmeet amid the burdens of the ministry, survives him with two little boys, one beloved little girl having preceded him to Glory Land. When the summons came our Brother's response was, "I am ready."

During his later sickness his intense sufferings were followed by loss of speech and consciousness for the most part. But during one of the intervals between his paroxisms, he looked upward and began to smile, and reaching out both open hands seemed to draw something near to him. So heavenly was his smile and joyous his expression, that involuntarily all beside him looked to see what he saw.

But none saw the bright angelic convoy, or it may be Jesus Himself, waiting to conduct the ransomed and victorious spirit to the Home of the soul eternal in the Heavens.

A voice, musical in its appeal to sinners, is hushed ; the gentle smile that used to brighten lonely paths of sorrow has vanished. But that voice, that smile, and the manly, saintly soul of which they were the expression, have only been translated to a holier and more glorious sphere of work.

"Their works do follow them," and "They serve Him day and night in His temple,"

At the conclusion Synod was led in prayer by the Rev. Dr. Frierson.

The minutes of to-day were read and approved.

On motion Synod then adjourned with singing, prayer and the Apostolic benediction, to meet at Yorkville, Tuesday, October 21st, 1890, at 8 p. m.

THOMAS R. ENGLISH, Moderator.

THOMAS H. LAW, Stated Clerk.
